

Oct. 28th 1938 - yesterday I was 65 yrs old - It was a beautiful fall day - Nothing out of the ordinary happened. I received some nice gifts 2 prs of hose from Bill & Gertrude - a pair of warm snappy gloves from Mildred & a pkg. in the evening with a gift from each member of Marcia's family - Gertrude & I did some house cleaning darning up curtains & & cleaning woodwork &

windows - It is still warm today and I realize I am starting out on another year.

I wonder what is
ahead - I hope I'll have health if nothing else. Tonight I got another gift - a
birthday card &
a dollar bill enclosed
from June -
